Driving Your Sponsored Content Further

Sponsored Content

You are an expert in what you do. Share your knowledge and demonstrate thought leadership by placing a sponsored content piece in CAPITAL.

A talented writer will work closely with you to craft a compelling story that provides value to our readers, and benefits to you. Your sponsored content will be placed in both the print edition, and on the CAPITAL website along with that edition's regular articles. All editions are archived for future reference on the site.

To maximize impact, sponsored content will blend in with our editorial theme for the issue.

Video Version

Video is the darling of content marketing. It is naturally engaging and, in an age of information overload, it quickly captures attention and draws viewers in.

If you prefer leveraging the power of video, we can also make that happen. Just let us know and we can provide a quote for full production, and assign both a scriptwriter/interviewer and a videographer to craft your short video sponsored content piece.

We can help make this trend work for you.

Prerequisite: You must purchase an Ad or Sponsored Content placement in the print publication to purchase the SlideShare and YouTube video option.

Social Media Campaign Bundle

An optional and highly-recommended value-add for your Sponsored Content purchase is our custom Social Media Campaign Bundle — designed to amplify your message even further within the OBOT network and business community; and drive people to your website too!

The skilled and well-connected Ottawa Board of Trade social team is poised to promote your sponsored content piece to their extensive multi-channel followers. And, as a bonus, also curate posts to drive viewers to your website. This two-pronged approach is the best of both worlds as it gives you 'endorsed' exposure to OBOT's extensive social media network, while also driving new visitors to your organization's URL.

And, of course, you can like and share all of these OBOT curated posts on your own channels to further boost your reach!

How it Works:

One sponsored content purchase equals:

- Three distinct and curated social media posts cross-promoted across OBOT's LinkedIn; Facebook and X channels (3 x 3 = 9 posts)!
- Two of these posts promote your Sponsored Content piece; and one will curate a short and compelling preamble that drives viewers to your website!
- The Ottawa Board of Trade reserves the right to select the most optimal timing for your posts and will send you suggested timing in advance. Your three posts across OBOT's three social channels will go out within the same quarter.
